

Call for Presentation Proposals

Workshop for Student Writers

Saturday, October 22, 2016

Are you willing to share your passion for writing with interested students?

The Rochester Area Literacy Council will be hosting a workshop for Student Authors on Saturday, October 22, 2016 from 9:00am-12:00pm at French Road Elementary School in Brighton, NY. The main goal of the day is to promote quality written expression of young people in our area. We will celebrate writing – teaching and learning about the ideas and talents of others! We believe that creating is a process that begins with thinking and ends with sharing and/or publishing.

To make this day possible, we need people who would be willing to present a 40 minute session around writing expression. Examples of sessions could include “How to write a memoir,” “How I drafted a (fill this in) short story or picture book or poem....,” lessons on writer’s craft (crafting leads, choosing words carefully, creating compelling characters), creating perspective, comic writing/creation, illustration, etc.

If you are interested in presenting on October 22nd, please complete the section below and send to the email address below by Friday, September 30th.

Name _____

Address _____

Email _____

Phone # _____ School affiliation _____

Title of 40 minute workshop _____

Brief description of the 40 minute workshop (please include: grade level(s), essential knowledge/skills students will learn; what students will do during the workshop, technology needs and room set up, etc.):

Submit Call for Proposal form by Friday, September 30th to: Christine Treasure at christine_treasure@bcsd.org.