

Call for Proposals Form
Live Local Literacy's Virtual Event
Saturday, February 6, 2021
9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Rochester Area Literacy Council (RALC)

Live Local Literacy is an event fashioned like a mini conference where participants select to attend sessions based on their professional interests. Each session is about 1 hour long, so that gives each attendee time to go to 2 different sessions. Presenters are local educators who volunteer their time to share their literacy passion and expertise with others. RALC is a State Department of Education approved professional development (CTLE) provider.

Please complete this form by November 1st and email as a word document to Christine Treasure at rochesterarealiteracycouncil@gmail.com.

For each presenter (add space as needed):

Name(s): _____

Email(s): _____

Phone #(s): _____

Present School Affiliation(s): _____

Your title(s): _____

Title of 60 minute workshop: _____

Target Audience: _____

Plan for presentation (please check all that apply below):

- I would present as a live webinar.
- I would pre-record a session to provide to RALC to share with the audience.
- I would present as a live webinar and plan to record the session to share at a later time.
- I have access to videoconferencing tools (i.e. Zoom, Google Meets, Team Meetings, Webex, etc.) and can set up my own virtual session.
- I do NOT have access to videoconferencing tools (i.e. Zoom, Google Meets, Team Meetings, Webex, etc.) and would need help arranging a way to create the virtual session.

Please provide a brief description of the 60 minute workshop below (Please keep your description very brief, less than 100 words and include information to help us share what you are going to do with our membership such as what participants will learn and/or do during the workshop or any other relevant information.):