

Rochester Area
Literacy Council presents...

Live Local Literacy
Saturday February 6, 2021
9:00 am - Noon
Come hear from NYS educators!

Session Titles:

Many Books, Many Stories: Using Children's and Young Adult Literature to Open Classroom Conversations

Phonological and Phonemic Awareness:
Overview, Assessment & Resources

Seeing What We See, Hearing What We Hear:
A New Perspective on Being a Mentor

Online During Reading Discussions

Who is in your family?: Moving toward a more inclusive representation of diverse families in children's literature

They Called Us Enemy: Using Graphic Novels in English 10H

The Anti-racist Curriculum Project:
Critical literacy and the history of civil rights in Rochester

Teaching Struggling Readers Strategies for Decoding Multisyllabic Words

An Update on Write on, NY!

Inclusive Literature: Disability and Ableism in Literature

Using Literacy to Prevent Bullying

Working Towards the Habits of Mind for Anti-Bias/Anti-Racist Teaching

Event is free for RALC & NYSRA members.

Fee for Non-members is $10.00.

REGISTER HERE