

Call for Proposals Form

Live Local Literacy

Saturday February 9, 2019, 9:00-12:00

Rochester Area Literacy Council (RALC)

*Live Local Literacy is an event fashioned like a mini-conference where participants select to attend sessions based on their professional interests. Each session is about 1 hour long, so that gives each attendee time to go to 2 different sessions. Presenters are local educators who are passionate about their practice and want to share their expertise. RALC is a State Department of Education approved professional development (CTLE) provider. Each presenter will receive a modest honorarium as a thank you for sharing his/her professional expertise with our membership. If accepted as a presenter, you do not need to register for this event, but if you do, your registration fee is waived.

Please complete by January 4, 2019 and email as a word document to Lee Ann Townsend at rochesterarealiteracycouncil@gmail.com

For each presenter (add space as needed):

Name(s) _____

Email(s) _____

Phone #(s) _____

Present School Affiliation(s): _____

Your Title(s): _____

Title of 60 minute workshop _____

Target Audience _____

Technology/room needs _____

Would you like to present your session once or twice, the same session back-to-back so more participants can attend? _____

(Presenting back-to-back sessions will depend on enrollment, so are you willing if there is a need?)

Brief description of the 60 minute workshop (Please keep your description very brief, less than 100 words and include information to help us share what you are going to do with our membership such as what participants will learn and/or do during the workshop or any other relevant information.)