Launching Literacy Learning!

Dr. Maureen McLaughlin

Critical Literacy, Close Reading, and Deep Comprehension for Meeting the Reading Standards K-12

Saturday, September 26, 9:00 – 12:00 pm
French Road Elementary School, Brighton, NY

Maureen McLaughlin is a Professor of Reading Education at East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania and a past President of ILA, 2013-14. Prior to earning her doctorate at Boston University, Maureen was a classroom teacher, reading specialist, and department chair in a public school system.

Dr. McLaughlin has authored numerous publications including the Common Core: Teaching K-5 or 6-12 to Meet the Reading Standards; Critical Literacy: Enhancing Students' Comprehension of Text; and Guided Comprehension in the Primary Grade. She has served on editorial review boards and has been committee chair for the National Reading Conference and the International Literacy Association.

Exciting News!

NYSRA will be sending a representative to share with us the nominees for the K-12 Charlotte Awards for 2015-16. Then consider joining the challenge to help select the next winners! Your classroom could receive all the books nominated for the award at your level. More details on September 26.
