

Rochester Area Literacy Association Members' Event

Wednesday, October 9th, 2019

Happy hour 5:00-5:45 PM

Presentation 5:45-7:00 PM

Nox Cocktail Lounge

302 N. Goodman Street, Rochester, NY 14607

- Free for current RALC members who will receive a complimentary drink ticket
Also
- Make a $5.00 donation to bring a friend or colleague
- $10 for non-RALC members

Tasty snacks are available for purchase. A menu is attached. The purchase of drinks, snacks and raffle tickets will enable RALC to cover the site fee.

Are you looking for books to engage your students? This free members' event will inspire you to inspire your students to read more. Cindy Schwind, a district interventionist in the Greece school district, will share her best book selections and strategies to engage students. She will share favorite read alouds as well as chapter books to interest even the most reluctant readers. The presentation will be tailored to the range of participants' grade levels as indicated on the form below.

There will be drawings for books and educational resources donated by our board members. Please bring cash if you are interested in purchasing raffle tickets.

Respond by September 26th via Eventbrite link:

<http://www.eventbrite.com/e/ralc-members-event-tickets-72336280763>

Contact Christine Treasure with questions: Christine_Treasure@boces.monroe.edu
If payment is necessary you can pay at the door