October 2021

Dear RALC Member,

We are very pleased to finally share the Rochester Area Literacy Council's annual literary magazine featuring pieces authored by students of Rochester and its surrounding areas. The theme of this publication is "So Runs the River."

This is a collection of excellent works of fiction, nonfiction, poetry and art. Due to COVID 19 restrictions, we will not have our traditional celebration at the Monroe County Zoo to distribute and celebrate our authors and artists. However, we will ensure that each published student receives a complimentary copy of this book.

We know that many of you as members may be interested in purchasing copies. Copies can be preordered for $15.00 each and will be delivered to your school building. The order form is below. Please send a check with the completed order form to Lynne Keefer at the address on the order form by Tuesday, November 2, 2021.

We are very proud of these young people for their hard work and their appreciation of the writing process.
