

Rochester Area Literacy Council (RALC)

www.rochesterarealiteracycouncil.org

2017 Sail into Summer with...

Dr. Anne Fairbrother

Powerful Literacy for All: Critical Literacy & Teaching for Social Justice

Bring a book for RALC's Little Free Library & you will be entered in this event's raffle.

Wednesday, May 17

4:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Rochester Yacht Club

5555 St. Paul Blvd., Rochester 14617

*Networking, yummy
hors d'oeuvres, collegial atmosphere, &
an unbeatable view!*

This presentation will examine the concepts of Powerful Literacy, Critical Literacy, and Teaching for Social Justice, while exploring what they look like in practice for all students. We will address how such approaches benefit all students: individually, socially, & academically. There will be opportunities for group discussions and materials will be shared.

Dr. Fairbrother earned her Ph.D. in Language, Literacy, and Sociocultural Studies at the University of New Mexico. Prior to accepting her current position at SUNY Oswego, she taught English and ESL in high schools in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Salinas, California.

Powerful Literacy – May 17, 2017 (Please return by May 15th.)

Name _____ District _____

Mailing Address _____

Email (Required) _____

RALC Members: $30.00 Non-Member: $40.00 Student: $25.00

Personal checks made out to RALC. District Purchase Orders are acceptable.

RETURN REGISTRATION: Karen_Speciale@eastiron.monroe.edu & pay at the door
OR mail form to Karen at 600 Pardee Road, Rochester, NY 14609

CTLE forms will be sent with event's
email reminder.

Please complete & bring two copies if credit is desired.