

Rochester Area Literacy Council

presents

Bring Your Student Authors and Illustrators to a Conference

A unique opportunity for young writers and artists, in grades two through twelve, to attend workshops and to consult with a coach about their own work.

To Imagine

To Celebrate

To Create

To Discover

To Encourage

To Publish

To Express

The Rochester Area Literacy Council will host a conference for students and their adult mentors on Saturday, October 18, 2014 from 9:00am-12:00pm at French Road School, 488 French Road, Rochester, 14618.

Our goal is to stimulate and support writing beyond the classroom. If you know a student who is a passionate, aspiring author and/or artist, we would ask you to invite that child and their writing mentor (i.e. parent, teacher, librarian) to attend. Students should bring “a work in progress” or their writing or drawing journal. Adult supervision and participation is expected.

RSVP to Karen Speciale (Karen.Speciale@eastiron.monroe.edu) ASAP to secure your attendance. Your RSVP must include the following information:

Student Name

Grade Level

School District Attending

Adult Mentor Name

Contact Information (email address and phone number)

We are very excited about this opportunity to encourage and invigorate students' creative passion. We hope to see you there!